“It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness.”

Dear Taylor Community,

It’s been eight weeks since we started this Daily News. Little did we realize what a fun means of communication this daily paper would become. Along the way we’ve laughed at a lot of your jokes, celebrated our incredible Taylor Community Team, and shared the good news that’s happening on campus, even in the midst of a pandemic.

I’ve appreciated how these daily communications have kept us connected and prompted many of you to pick up the phone and call, or e-mail me. Your questions, concerns, and notes recognizing our exceptional staff are always welcome.

This pandemic has affected all of us in very real ways. But, in the midst of this darkness, we’ve also discovered the best in one another. Every day I hear stories about how residents and staff are lifting one another up, providing light on some of these very long days.

And so today I simply want to say thank you. Your continued good humor, patience and positive attitudes are contagious. We will get through this together.

Be safe, take care of one another, and please keep washing your hands.

Michael

JOKE OF THE DAY

Two blondes living in Oklahoma were sitting on a bench talking. One blonde says to the other, "Which do you think is farther away, Florida or the moon?"

The other blonde turns and says, "Helloooooo, can you see Florida?"

SATURDAY FUNNY

Courtesy of Resident Beryl Charlton

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The nun made a note, and posted on the apple tray:

'Take only ONE. God is watching.'
Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies.
A child had written a note, 'Take all you want. God is watching the apples...'
