

“THOSE WHO HAVE
LONG ENJOYED
SUCH PRIVILEGES
AS WE ENJOY
FORGET IN TIME
THAT MEN HAVE DIED
TO WIN THEM.”

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Dear Taylor Community,

As we approach Memorial Day weekend, we remember the sacrifices of many.

This solemn occasion also offers us perspective. The past two months have forced us to endure significant changes to our daily lives. School and business models have been turned upside down. The ripple effects of this pandemic will be felt for years to come. Yet this country and its people have faced adversity before. And the hardships we’re facing today pale in comparison to the sacrifices of those who have given their lives in service of our country.

This weekend, may we remember the heroic men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice. We honor their courage, bravery, and selflessness. Let us endeavor to live our lives every day in a way that will honor theirs.

Be safe, take care of one another, and please keep washing your hands.

JOKE OF THE DAY

Courtesy of Ed Soucy

A 65-year old man goes to his doctor and after the physical, the doctor says to the man that he is in great shape.

“You are in great condition for a man your age. Is longevity common in your family?”

“Yes it is,” the man replies. The doctor asks, “How old was your father when he died?” The man smiles and says, “What makes you think he is dead? He is alive and well at age 90.”

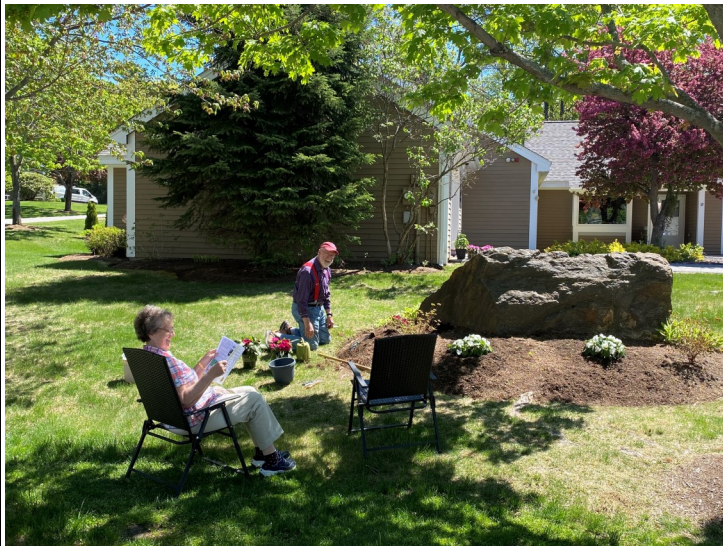

“Wow, that is great,” says the doctor. “At what age did your Grandfather die?” “What makes you think my Grandfather is dead?” says the man.

“Truth be told he is alive and well at age 110. In fact, he is getting married next weekend to a 20-year old woman.”

The doctor is stunned. “Getting married at 110 years old to a 20-year old? What makes him want to do that?”

The man replies, “What makes you think he wants to?”

We caught funnyman Dick Wolfe doing some gardening in his yard yesterday. “I’m supervising,” commented his wife, Isabel.

SPECIAL MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAMMING

Amy Fogg, author and founder of They Speak "Voices of Henri-Chapelle American Cemetery" has done extensive research on the 40 New Hampshire and 25 Vermont servicemen who died while fighting in WWII and were interred at the Henri-Chapelle American Cemetery in Belgium. Amy has generously provided Taylor Community with a couple of short video presentations detailing her work and a beautiful drone tour of the Henri-Chapelle Cemetery. These videos will be available for viewing on Taylor Community TouchTown TV Channel 98 on Monday, May 25, on a rotating schedule.

In addition to these video presentations, we will have a live performance of Taps at Woodside (11:00am), Ledgerview (12:00pm) and Taylor Home (1:00pm). Taps will be played by Taylor Community's own Ryan Fogg. Thanks in advance to Ryan for helping to bring us this meaningful tribute this Memorial Day.
