

“When life throws you a rainy day, play in the puddles.”

Dear Taylor Community,

We may not actually be playing in the puddles today, but our staff, residents and their loved ones have certainly been making the best of these extraordinary circumstances. Our licensed buildings remain closed to visitors here at Taylor Community, but residents have been enjoying window visits with their loved ones this week. These visits are a welcome reprieve from FaceTime visits through computer screens and are the source of many smiles.

We appreciate everyone’s continued patience with the restrictions currently in place, understanding that we are simply working to keep your loved ones safe and healthy, and adhering to the State of New Hampshire’s mandates regarding long-term care facilities. If you have not yet arranged a window visit with your loved one and would like to do so, please let us know.

And if any of our adventurous independent residents are actually outside jumping in the puddles today, please send us along a picture of the fun.

Be safe, take care of one another, and please keep washing your hands,

Michael

JOKE OF THE DAY

Courtesy of a Resident Funnyman

A man, his wife, and his mother-in-law went on vacation to the Holy Land. While they were there, the mother-in-law passed away. An undertaker told them, "You can have her shipped home for $5,000, or you can bury her here in the Holy Land for $150."

The man thought about it for a while and then told him, "I see. Well, you'd better ship her home then." The undertaker asked, "Why? Why would you pay $5,000 to ship your mother-in-law home, when it would be wonderful to have her buried here and only spend $150?" The man said, "A man died 2,000 years ago. He was buried here and three days later, he rose from the dead...I just can't take that chance!"

THURSDAY FUNNIES

When you are dissatisfied and would like to go back to youth, think of algebra.

I'm at an age when my back goes out more than I do.

An archaeologist is the best husband a woman can have. The older she gets the more interested he is in her.

We could certainly slow the aging process down if it had to work its way through Congress.

The only reason I would take up jogging is so that I could hear heavy breathing again.

You know you're getting old when the candles cost more than the cake.

How do you say "Social Distancing" in Bostonian, you ask?!
