Dear Taylor Community,

Last Friday, on the occasion of the Laconia High School Class of 2020 graduation, we put a call out to Taylor Community residents, asking how many of you had graduated from Laconia High School.

So far, our count includes twenty-one Taylor residents, ranging from the Class of 1941 to the Class of 1959. One of our most interesting phone calls was from resident Leopold Bourgault. "I was in the Class of 1943," he said. "But war had broken out, so I enlisted in the Navy half way through my senior year. My girlfriend (who later became my wife) picked up my diploma."

Leo spent a total of five years in the service, three years away and two in the reserves. He credits the GI Bill with helping him learn his trade as a plumber and the wonderful business and life he has enjoyed since.

Leo's story is a reminder to Class of 2020 graduates that life is what you make of it. The second half of your school year may not have looked the way you imagined, but with hard work and fortitude, the best is yet to come.

Be safe, take care of one another, and please keep washing your hands,

Michael

JOKE OF THE DAY

Courtesy of a Resident Funnyman

A thief breaks into a house when he thinks no one will be at home. He's creeping carefully through the property and as he steps into the lounge he's stopped dead in his tracks when he suddenly hears someone say very clearly, "Jesus is watching you!" He stands very still for a moment until everything in the house falls silent again. At this point he moves forward very slowly. Once again he hears that voice, "Jesus is watching you!" The thief is now frightened out of his wits and he stops once again to focus on locating the voice. He's looking around peering into the darkness when he spots a birdcage and in the birdcage is a parrot. The thief looks the parrot in the eyes and asks, "Was that you who said, 'Jesus is watching me'?" "Yes", said the parrot. The thief relaxes and breathes a sigh of relief. "Thank goodness for that", he says to the parrot. "What's your name?" "The family here call me Ronald", said the parrot. "Ronald? You cannot be serious!" laughs the thief. "What sort of family calls their pet parrot Ronald?" "The sort of family that call their ferocious, Rottweiler guard dog Jesus" the parrot responds.

FROM THE WELLNESS DEPARTMENT

With our Bocce Ball and Shuffleboard courts nearing completion, it is time to get some teams started! If you are interested in joining a team please register with Heather Joubert at hjoubert@taylorcommunity.org by June 24. Beginning Monday, June 22 we will allow 4 people to be in the gym area at once and signups will no longer be required. (Please remember to only have 2 people per room at the same time.) We ask that you please be sure to clean all equipment you have used before leaving. The gym will open at 5:30 am and close at 7pm. The gym will remain closed on the weekends until further notice. If you have any questions please reach out to Heather Joubert at 366-1206 or hjoubert@taylorcommunity.org.

TUESDAY FUNNY

A turtle was walking down an alley in New York when he was mugged by a gang of snails. A police detective came to investigate and asked the turtle if he could explain what happened. The turtle looked at the detective with a confused look on his face and replied "I don't know, it all happened so fast."
