Dear Taylor Community,

In some respects, yesterday was a typical day here at Taylor Community. It's just been a while since this much activity has happened on campus all at once. For some, the day began with a wonderful tour and picnic at Miles Smith Farm in Loudon. Our thanks to Carol Soule for making our visit possible and Glendale Dining for the delicious picnic lunch.

Back on campus, our beloved Universal Worker, Julia Latham and her horse, Whimsey, treated us to a wonderful visit and Horse Show. Our thanks to Cadbury Woods Farm in Sanbornton for bringing us this dynamic duo, and Taylor's Maintenance Supervisor Ryan Fogg who, along with his kids, made the jumps for Whimsey.

Later, we hosted an Antique Car Parade with members of the Granite Ridge Antique Car Club. It was incredible! Thanks to them as well as Ryan Fogg again, who helped to line folks up and lead the way through campus on his John Deere.

As if that was not enough, we had our ongoing Bocce Ball league happening in the afternoon thanks to Heather Joubert and our awesome Wellness Team. Oh, and did I mention that Jennifer Lutzen and the exceptional Glendale Dining crew also hosted another fabulous outdoor Dining experience at our Woodside Pavilion last evening? It was one full day here at Taylor Community.

My sincere thanks to everyone who helped make yesterday's hectic schedule happen. As always, I welcome residents to join me for our Tuesday morning Cracker Barrel meeting at 10:00 a.m. under the Pavilion. This meeting is a wonderful opportunity for residents to share with me what type of programming you would like to see here at Taylor Community. If you can dream it up, I will help make it happen for you. There is no place like Taylor Community! Our residents make coming to work every day such a pleasure.

Keep smiling and keep up the good work social distancing,

Brenda (bkean@taylorcommunity.org or 366-1226)

JOKE OF THE DAY

Courtesy of a Resident Funnyman

A farmer gets sent to jail, and his wife is trying to hold the farm together until her husband can get out. She's not, however, very good at farm work, so she writes a letter to him in jail:

"Dear sweetheart, I want to plant the potatoes. When is the best time to do it?"

The farmer writes back: "Honey, don't go near that field. That's where all my guns are buried."

But, because he is in jail all of the farmer's mail is censored. So when the sheriff and his deputies read this, they all run out to the farm and dig up the entire potato field looking for guns. After two full days of digging, they don't find one single weapon.

The farmer then writes to his wife: "Honey, now is when you should plant the potatoes."
