

ROCKIN' IN WOLFEBORO—The Rockin' Daddios returned for an encore performance last night, this time at our Back Bay campus. There were toes tapping, dancing feet, and lots of smiles. Thanks to all who joined us for a fun evening. Photos Courtesy of Brenda Kean.

“We all need feedback. That is how we improve.”

Dear Taylor Community,

Nothing says welcome back from vacation quite like reading through recently returned Resident Surveys.

All kidding aside, my sincere thanks to residents who have already carefully completed and returned this year's survey. The feedback so far has been constructive and helpful. We look forward to receiving more responses in the coming weeks. These surveys help us highlight the things that we're doing well and areas where we can do better. They help us to change and grow in ways that reflect the wants and needs of the residents we serve.

Your input also gives us the opportunity to share kudos with staff and offer opportunities for growth as needed. And, of course, your feedback helps me and our Senior Leadership team reflect on the work we're doing. Your responses help us understand what you think we've done well and areas where we're falling short. When we know better, we can do better and these surveys give us all the opportunity to do just that.

Again, my thanks to all who have already returned the survey, and thank you in advance to the rest of you. We look forward to hearing from you soon!

Be safe, wear a mask, and please keep washing your hands.

JOKE OF THE DAY

A nun, badly needing to use the restroom, walked into a local Pub. The place was hopping with music and loud conversation and every once in a while “the lights would turn off.”

Each time the lights would go out, the place would erupt into cheers. However, when the revelers saw the nun, the room went dead silent.

She walked up to the bartender and asked, “May I please use the restroom?”

The bartender replied, “Ok, but I should warn you that there is a statue of a naked man in there wearing only a fig leaf.”

“Well, in that case, I’ll just look the other way,” said the nun. So the bartender showed the nun to the back of the restaurant. After a few minutes, she came back out, and the whole place stopped just long enough to give the nun a loud round of applause.

She went to the bartender and said, “Sir, I don’t understand. Why did they applaud me just because I went to the restroom?”

“Well, now they know you are one of us,” said the bartender. “Would you like a drink?”

“No thank you, but, I still don’t understand,” said the puzzled nun.

“You see,” laughed the bartender, “every time someone lifts the fig leaf on the statue, the lights go out.”
