

DO YOU RECOGNIZE ANYONE IN THIS PHOTO?

With so much talk about school and what's in store for the winter, yesterday Gunstock shared this photo of a Laconia bus picking up kids in downtown Laconia to go to skiing at the mountain. Fun local memories!

Dear Taylor Community,

Seeing this photo of Laconia kids heading up to Gunstock brings back an embarrassing moment I had a couple of winters ago, when I fell off the chairlift while skiing with one of Taylor Community's new employees. But I digress...

Today I simply want to share another important COVID-19 update. As you may have seen in the news yesterday, Governor Sununu announced a comprehensive list of COVID-19 testing locations throughout the State of New Hampshire. Thanks to Taylor Community's Infection Control nurse Crystal Hardy, all independent residents will soon be receiving a COVID-19 Guidance flier that carefully outlines the symptoms of COVID-19, when to be tested, where to get tested, quarantine protocols, and safety precautions you can take to keep yourself safe and healthy. While we are fortunately still COVID-19 free here at Taylor Community, we want to continue to reinforce safety precaution and protocols with our independent residents, and this flier will be another reminder and resource.

Our intent with sharing this information with you again is twofold. First, we don't want anyone to hesitate to get tested if you are not feeling well and two, we want you to let us know if you are getting tested or test positive so that we can support you. Team Taylor is here for you and we will provide services free of charge that will allow you to remain in quarantine, including grocery and pharmacy shopping.

Again, thank you for your continued vigilance and efforts to keep our campus safe and healthy. And, if you'd like to hear the full story of my Gunstock chairlift embarrassment, feel free to ask Taylor's Gretchen Gandini. She is always happy to tell the story in great detail.

Be safe, wear a mask, and please keep washing your hands.

JOKE OF THE DAY

Courtesy of Resident Frank Judge

Ever since I was a child, I've always had a fear of someone under my bed at night. So I went to a shrink and told him, "I've got problems. Every time I go to bed I think there's somebody under it. I'm scared and I think I'm going crazy."

"Just put yourself in my hands for one year," said the shrink. "Come in and talk to me three times a week and we should be able to get rid of those fears."

"How much do you charge?"

"Eighty dollars per visit," replied the doctor.

"I'll sleep on it," I said.

Six months later the doctor met me on the street. "Why didn't you come to see me about those fears you were having?", he asked.

"Well, eighty bucks a visit, three times a week for a year is $12,480. A bartender cured me for $10. I was so happy to have saved all that money that I went and bought me a new pickup truck."

"Is that so?" he said with a bit of an attitude, "And how, may I ask, did a bartender cure you?"

"He told me to cut the legs off the bed. Ain't nobody under there now!"

REMINDER: VIRTUAL RESIDENT TOWN HALL WILL BE RECORDED ON MONDAY

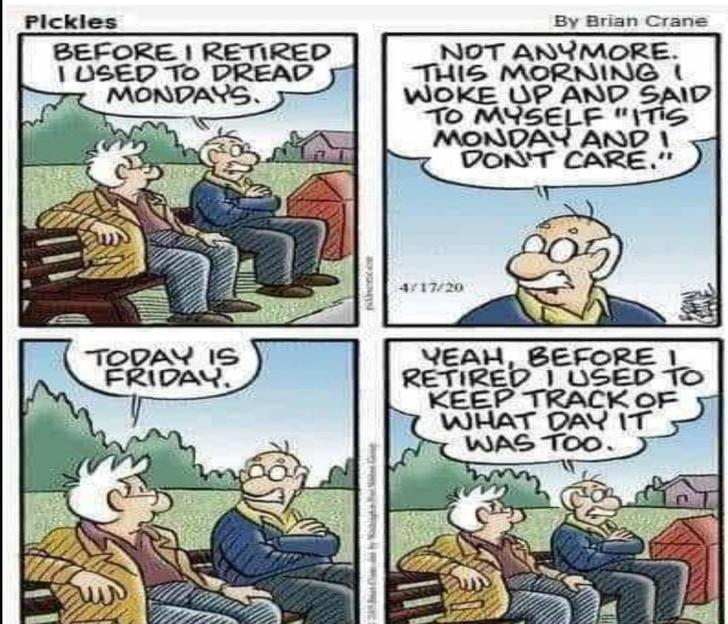

Rumor has it that Ed hasn't been getting many phone calls lately and he's feeling a little sad. We will be recording another virtual Town Hall on Monday, August 10th. This Town Hall will be aired on TouchTownTV Channel 98 beginning Tuesday, August 11th and will also be available for viewing on the resident section of the website. FRIDAY FUNNIES

*You drop something when you were younger, you just pick it up. When you're older and you drop something, you stare at it for a bit contemplating if you actually need it anymore.

*Don't stress about your eyesight failing as you get older. It's nature's way of protecting you from shock as you walk past the mirror.

*Aging gracefully is an art. Aging disgracefully is an absolute blast!
